How we aim to satisfy you with our legal services

The areas of our practice are limited to estate planning, probate, guardianship/conservatorship, and trust and estate administration. These areas obviously inform each other. For example, the estate planning we do is affected by what we know about administering a decedent's estate. We try very hard to stay current with the latest developments in the areas of our law practice. This is a benefit to our clients, who are depending on us to help them chart their way through the legal maze that one's relationships give rise to. Whether you need a Will, a trust, Powers of Attorney, or any of a multitude of other legal services required over a lifetime, our friendly and knowledgeable staff will carefully and confidentially apply themselves to your requirements. Henry Wood is a member of various bar associations, the Southern Arizona Estate Planning Council, and is a Licensed Fiduciary. In addition to his JD, he has a post graduate law degree (LLM) and an MBA.
